HISTORY OF ALPHA RHO CHAPTER

On March 23, 1926, Phi Delta Zeta, at the Newark Technical College (now the New Jersey Institute of Technology) and Alpha Kappa Pi, at Wagner College, two local organizations on these campuses, completed plans for the formation of a new national fraternity. It was decided to make the name Alpha Kappa Pi and to place the Alpha Chapter at Newark and the Beta Chapter at Wagner.

In September of 1946, Alpha Kappa Pi merged with Alpha Sigma Phi. It seemed that the move would provide for better services to the undergraduates and chapters of both fraternities. The consolidation brought changes in the constitution, by-laws, and rituals of Alpha Sigma Phi. The Alpha Chapter of Alpha Kappa Pi became the Alpha Rho Chapter of Alpha Sigma Phi. However, conditions on campus resulted in the disappearance of Alpha Rho in the early 1950's.

Today we celebrate the return of Alpha Rho to the Mystic Circle.
